Excellence in Government Fellows Program

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 5, 2021

For 30 years, the Excellence in Government Fellows program has been providing professional development for high-performing, mission-driven leaders from across government. With newly incorporated modules and elements, EIG helps participants address 21st-century issues most effectively.

EIG is different from other leadership programs because it:

• Focuses on results: Participants work collaboratively on projects designed to tackle critical issues agencies face.

• Provides the time and space to grow: By taking place over months rather than weeks, the EIG program enables participants to stay in their jobs and to reflect on lessons between sessions.

• Facilitates crucial connections: EIG participants come out of the program with mentors as well as a network of peers and colleagues from across government. These networks help alumni further their own work and also strengthen the ability of different agencies to work together.

TIME COMMITMENT

During the year-long program, fellows remain in their full-time jobs and meet every two months, spending a total of 27 days in session (including orientation and cohort check-ins). Fellows also devote up to five hours per week to their results projects and session pre-work. Fellows are expected to attend all sessions, so applicants should review the class schedule and confirm their availability before applying for the program. Exceptions are made for family and work-related emergencies.

Once accepted into the program, each fellow will be assigned to a cohort led by an executive coach.

The orientation session and each cohort check-in will be two hours long, held on a single date within the date range listed. Once you are assigned to a cohort, you will be given the date assigned for your group.
