Gov21: The 21st Century Government Innovation Program

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 15, 2021

The 21st Century Government Innovation Program (Gov21) is designed to meet the evolving needs of federal agency leaders.

As an experienced public servant, you know how to achieve your agency's mission and get things done on behalf of the American public. You also know that there are new and better ways that your agency can accomplish its mission, including ways that emphasize agility, impact and the unique skill sets and perspectives of your colleagues. You know that this is the future of government: 21st century government. This is for you.

The Gov21 program:

- Provides you with new innovation tools for leading effectively in government.
- Empowers you to make impactful, data-driven decisions.
- Offers opportunities for you to develop new relationships with other government leaders who share a passion for making government work better.

As a Gov21 participant, you will:

- Use design thinking to strategize, solve problems and develop new initiatives.
- Use behavioral science and data to streamline activities.
- Learn how to facilitate effective meetings.
- Take full advantage of innovation resources to do better and act faster.

During the program you will engage with experts and other participants to learn modern ways of solving government challenges and begin to address a self-selected problem. By the end of the program, you will have gained a deeper understanding of problem identification, acquired useful tools and methods and tested potential solutions to address your problem.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

GS-14s and GS-15s (though we may accept a small number of high-performing GS-12s and GS-13s). Applicants should have an interest in improving workplace culture, growing professionally, discovering new methods and tools to operate more effectively and efficiently, and meeting fellow trail blazers.

APPLICATION CRITERIA

The application includes your personal information, responses to short-answer questions and permission from your supervisor to participate in the program. Participants must be approved for funding by their agency upon applying. Carefully consider short-answer responses to ensure your government career objectives align with the high expectations of Gov21 participants. We are looking for participants who are willing to attend all sessions, commit to learning and active participation, and want to use their federal job for good. While we aim to have a cohort of roughly 30 participants, we will be able to accept no more than 40.

LOCATION

All sessions will be virtual.

TIME COMMITMENT

Gov21 is normally six full days split into three, two-day sessions. However, to better accommodate virtual learning during COVID, the Spring 2021 cohort will be nine half-days split into three, three-day sessions. You are expected to prepare for and attend every session and complete any pre-work or readings assigned between sessions. Prior to applying to the program, please review the schedule and confirm your availability for all nine session dates. All session days will take place from 12:00 pm–4:00 pm ET.
