Public Service Leadership Circle

APPLICATION DEADLINE: OCTOBER 27, 2020

The West Coast is home to a robust population of federal employees and poses a unique set of challenges to its federal workforce. Building strong networks and enhancing the leadership attributes of West Coast-based federal employees is critical to the success of the federal mission in a regional setting.

The Public Service Leadership Circle is a virtual cross-agency leadership development opportunity offered exclusively to West Coast-based federal employees. The inaugural cohort is open to those with less than five years of federal experience. Based on the Partnership's Public Service Leadership Model, this program highlights the core values leaders must prioritize, and the critical competencies they must master to achieve their agencies' missions and desired impact.
