Preparing to Lead

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JUNE 28, 2024 AT 5 P.M. EDT

Preparing to Lead is a professional development program for federal employees interested in pursuing leadership opportunities within their agencies. Structured around the four core competencies of the Public Service Leadership Model, participants in the program will develop skills and strategies for improved self-awareness and increased ability to lead change, achieve results and engage others.

Our government needs innovative solutions and guidance from strong, capable leaders. Through the Preparing to Lead program, participants will develop the skills needed to meet those needs and lead their teams to effectively achieve their missions. Whether joining us from homeland security or human resources, participants end the program with a clear direction in their personal leadership journey.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications must include your personal information, professional experience and objectives, and an up-to-date resume. You do not need to complete the application in one session. You can save it and return to it later.

COST

Tuition is $3,500 and includes:

- All program facilitation
- Course materials (e.g. articles and recordings)
- Online collaboration tools
- Access to the Partnership's resources, expertise and networks

LOCATION

The Preparing to Lead program will kick off over two days (1–5 p.m. EDT) and will be followed by semimonthly sessions (2–5 p.m. EDT). All virtual sessions of the Preparing to Lead program will take place over the Zoom for Government platform. Please speak with your office IT team to ensure you will be granted access to Zoom while enrolled in the program.

TIME COMMITMENT

The program requires a commitment of 78 hours across 20 weeks and includes live virtual sessions, program coursework and a team project. Participants are expected to actively participate in our live sessions and to complete their coursework and team projects outside of our designated session hours. Prior to applying to the program, please review the program schedule and confirm your availability for all sessions. Exceptions for attendance are made for family and work-related emergencies.

Once accepted into the program, each participant will be assigned to a cohort led by a program facilitator and program coordinator.

To prepare participants for the program and review all technology requirements, the Preparing to Lead team will host a virtual orientation session on July 17, from 1–2 p.m. EDT.

The Partnership for Public Service is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that believes good government starts with good people.
