

SUPERVISOR APPROVAL FORM TO ATTEND THE EHRL PROGRAM

Overview of Program

The Emerging HR Leaders Forum is a professional development opportunity for public sector HR employees early in their careers. Participants develop the foundational knowledge and the professional network necessary to navigate their HR careers and maximize their impact in government. Throughout this six month program, participants engage in professional development activities and learn from subject matter experts. The sessions emphasize conversation and application to ensure participants understand concepts fully and can use the skills and knowledge they acquire.
